Mike and Mindy,

Attached for your review is a clean version of the PPT for your review. In the interest of time (and the fact that explorer keeps cutting out on me) I will make conforming changes like font size, periods at the end of bullets v no periods etc. after we receive your comments.

This was a true collaborative effort with Karen, Julie, Dolores and myself all contributing various slides. We think this strikes the balance of updating Dave and OW management with enough detail they can provide meaningful input and feel comfortable moving forward on this effort.

We look forward to your comments and depending on when we receive your comments, will turn them around tomorrow so John can have the briefing either COB tomorrow or first thing Tuesday am.

Thank you all! - Kathy
